I began this series of drawings shortly after returning to Rio, following a three-month stay in New York City, where I presented my second solo exhibition at High Noon Gallery in Tribeca.

These works are an exercise in free association — an attempt to recreate what it might feel like to play “Exquisite Corpse,” the Surrealist collective drawing game, entirely on my own.

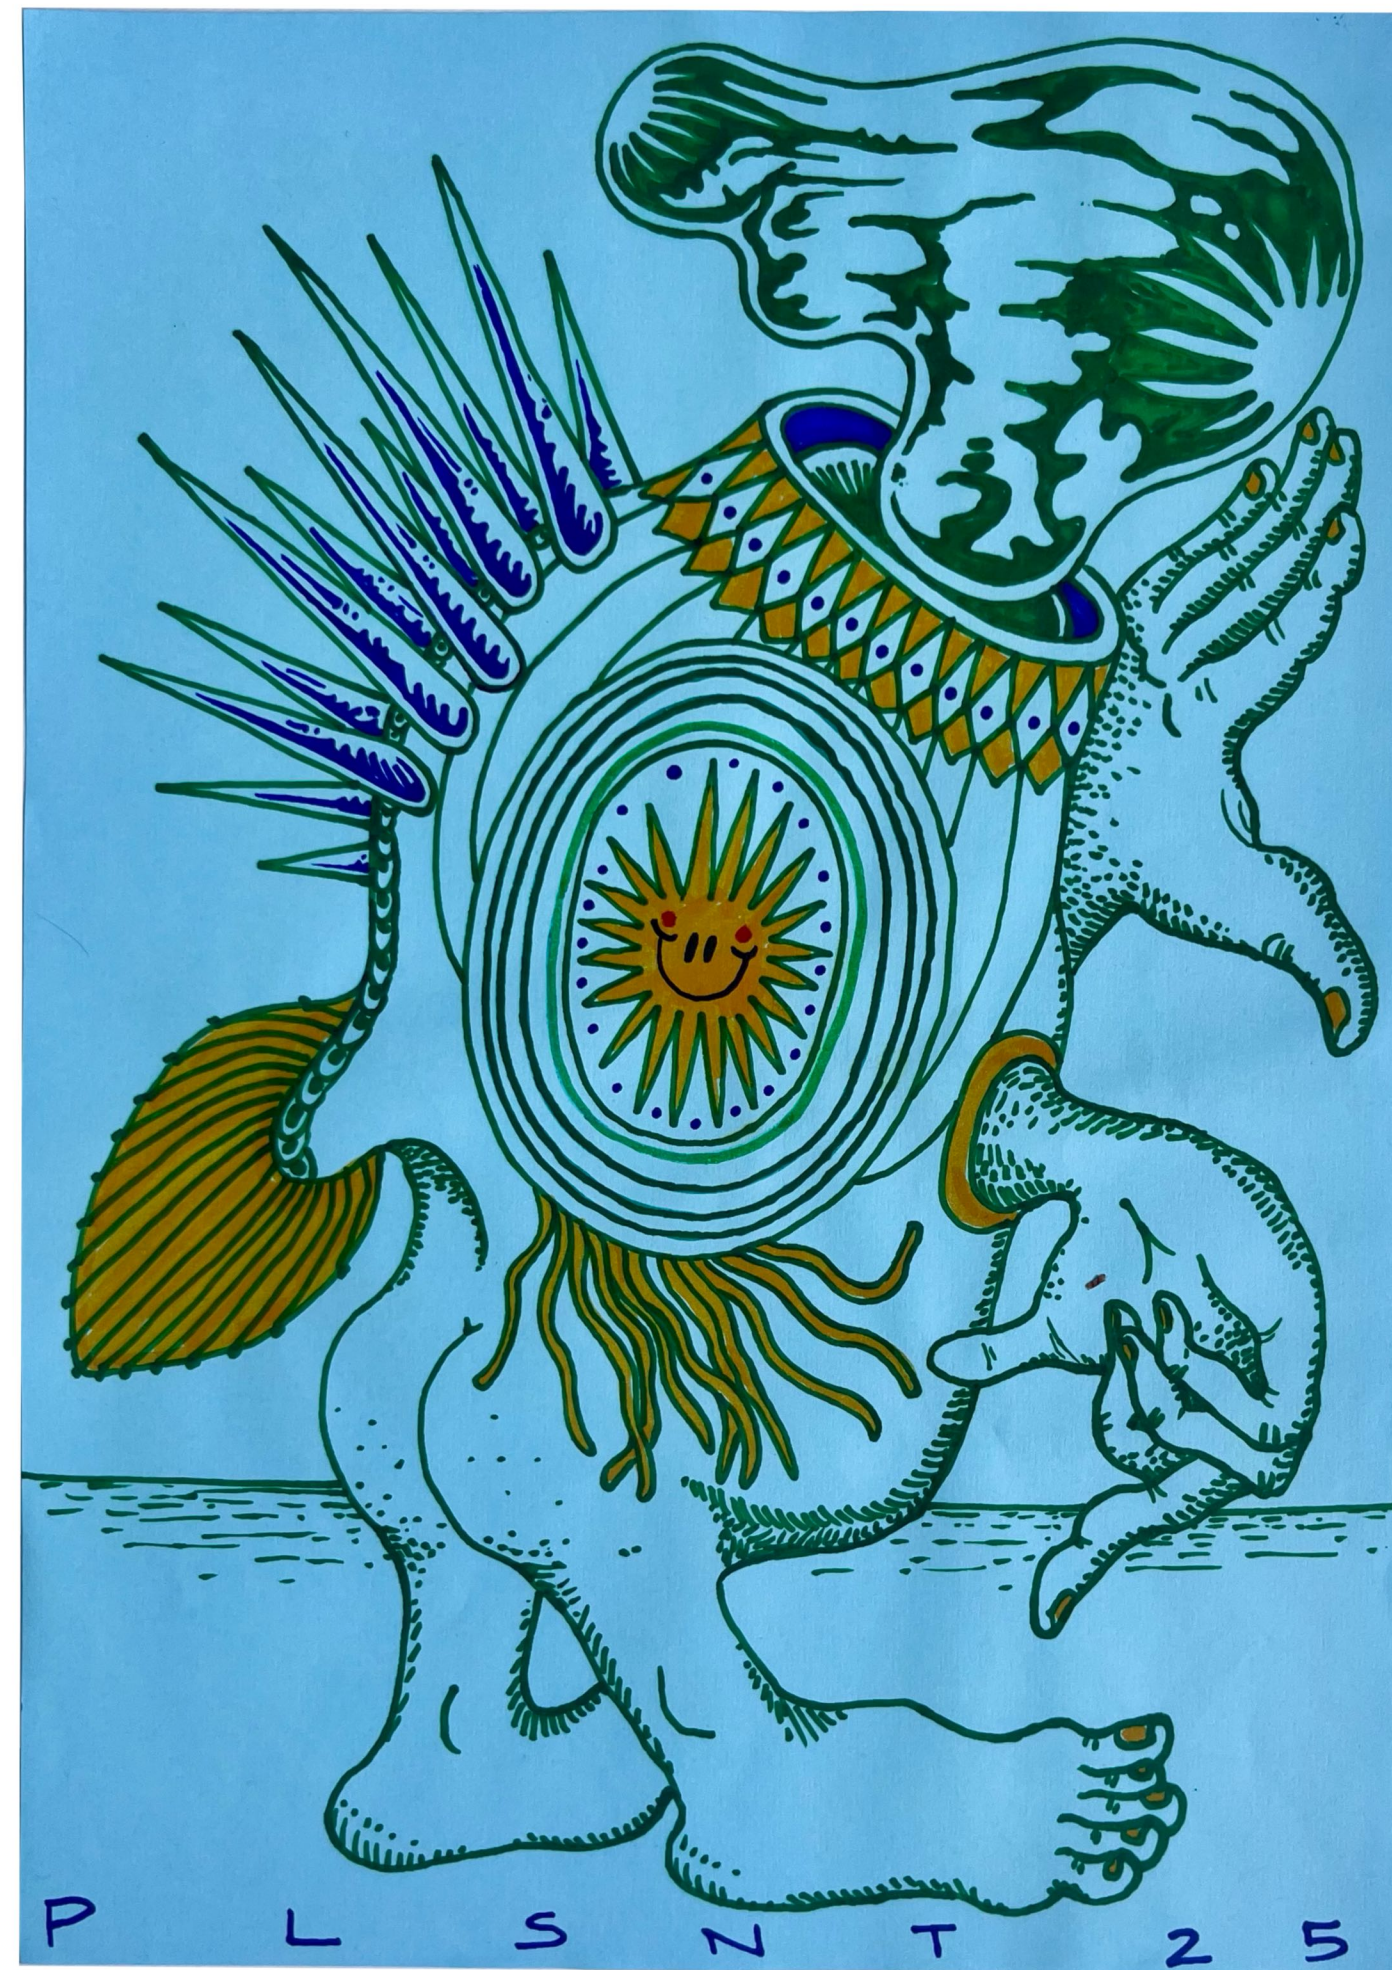

Comecei esta série de desenhos pouco depois de voltar ao Rio, após passar três meses em Nova York, onde realizei minha segunda exposição individual na High Noon Gallery, em Tribeca.

Esses trabalhos são um exercício de associação livre — uma tentativa de recriar como seria jogar “Cadáver Esquisito”, o jogo de desenho surrealista, inteiramente sozinho.
